Report of Superintendent Haskell Shows Improvement in Condition of Scales Used in District.

People of the District now come nearer to getting full measure and just weights than ever before, according to the annual report of W. C. Haskell, superintendent of weights, measures, and markets, submitted to the Commissioners yesterday.

Improvement in the conditions of scales used in the District has been marked. Many merchants of the city have co-operated with the department, the report states, in its efforts to protect the purchasing public.

According to the report, total receipts of the department deposited with the collector of taxes during the last year amounted to $2,722,824. There were 22,222 weights, scales, and measures tested; 426 were condemned and destroyed; and 219 were condemned for repair.

Inspections of dairies showed that conditions have improved over previous years. Of the eighty dairies visited, short bottles were found in only five. Of the 500,000 milk bottles inspected, 5,812 were seized and destroyed.

Ice Man Goes to Jail.

Sales of ice were watched closely during the summer for instances of short weight. One ice man was sentenced to thirty days in jail in each of three cases for failure to pay a fine of $100. Twenty-three cases were prosecuted in Police Court for violations of the weights and measures law during the year.

The number of cases prosecuted showed a decrease of fifty-four over the preceding year. Fines to the amount of $533 were imposed.

Coal merchants continue to use great care in weighing coal for delivery, the report states, and adds that "dealers generally are glad to have their coal re-weighed by this office."

Receipts in rents of market stands and street market space in the Eastern, Western, and Georgetown markets amounted to $20,000.90, an increase of $221.04 over last year.

The report makes mention of the taking over by the District of the fish market. Supt. Haskell, Health Officer Woodward, and Municipal Architect Snowden Ashford have been appointed by the Commissioners to examine this property and report on or before July 1 plans for suitable fish wharf and market.

COURT CLERK CONGRATULATED.

John R. Young Rounds Out Twenty-one Years of Service.

John R. Young, for twenty-one years clerk of the District Supreme Court, yesterday was congratulated by members of the bar and bench.

He is the second man to serve in this capacity, having been appointed shortly after the death of Return J. Meigs, Jr., the first clerk of the Supreme Court of the District, October 20, 1891.

Mr. Young entered the clerk's office in 1891 as an assistant clerk, and in the two capacities has had an unshaken service of thirty-six years at the city hall.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Belle Mills Found Guilty of Strangling Husband to Death.

A verdict of manslaughter was brought in yesterday afternoon by a jury in Criminal Court No. 1 in the case of the government against Belle Mills, colored, charged with murder in the first degree in connection with the death of her husband, John Mills, in June, 1911.

It was charged that the woman strangled her husband in the left side and that he died in an ambulance on the way to the hospital. The woman pleaded self-defense. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

B. H. Warner Better.

Brainerd H. Warner, prominent in real estate and financial circles here, is in a sanatorium at Clifton Springs, N. Y., suffering from a nervous breakdown. He is reported to be improving rapidly, but it will be several weeks, it is said, before he can resume active work here.

Which Would You Choose?

A dark, dingy house, where the method of lighting is antiquated, where the ceilings and walls are disfigured with smudge and soot, an attractive electrically lighted home—a home that makes you feel "thrice welcome" the minute you see it—where the ceilings and walls are clean and look like new?

OR

You say, "really there is no choice—every one prefers an electrically lighted home. Electric light is matchless—but." Leave the "but" off—don't even think of it. Tell us when to send our representative. He will make the way easy.

Mazda Lamps have cut the cost of electric light in half.
